

SINCE 604 AD

KING'S SCHOOL

ROCHESTER

Post title:	Teacher of Clarinet and Saxophone (Contractor)
Reporting to:	Director of Music
Hours of work:	6 hours per week
Salary:	£35 per hour
Commencing:	As soon as possible

King's School Rochester seeks an inspiring and enthusiastic Teacher of Clarinet and Saxophone to deliver individual lessons to pupils across all age groups in the Junior and Senior Schools. There may also be opportunities to lead ensembles.

Main Responsibilities

- Teach individual lessons from beginner up to post-Grade 8 standard.
- Inspire pupils to enable them to perform to their best ability.
- Tailor lessons to suit each pupil, inspiring and encouraging them to practice and progress.
- Set realistic, motivating targets for pupils and encourage them to enter for examinations, as appropriate.
- Provide high-quality teaching to pupils aged 6 to 18.
- Be fully committed to the success of the School's music and its pupils.
- Arrange lesson times in accordance with the pupils' timetable as well as the whole school calendar.
- Write reports for pupils.
- Submit timetables, reports and pay claims within the advertised deadlines and comply with School policies and procedures.
- Maintain excellent standards of communication, both with other staff, parents and pupils as appropriate.
- Use the King's Rochester email system for all communications relating to work at King's.
- Contribute to the development and delivery of the School's vision and values.

Person Specification

	Essential	Desirable
Education and qualifications	High level of achievement on your main instrument, evidenced by relevant qualifications and experience	Bachelor's degree or above
Specialist knowledge and skills:	A highly talented practitioner of your subject;	Experience of leading school ensembles. Experience of working in a boarding school.
Skills and Abilities	Maintain high standards of teaching and learning; Inspire pupils to develop a love of music; Maintain positive relationships with colleagues, students and parents;	Fluency with and appreciation of IT, such as experience in delivering instrumental lessons remotely (online).
Personal Qualities	Actively support the ethos of King's Rochester. A commitment to the holistic development of students through involvement in co-curricular and pastoral activities; The ability to establish good working relationships with a wide range of people including students, parents, and colleagues.

If you require further information or would like to discuss the role in person, please contact recruitment@kings-rochester.co.uk and Malcolm Munro, Director of Music, who will be happy to discuss the role in more detail - mmunro@kings-rochester.co.uk

King's Rochester is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and fulfils all its responsibilities under current child protection and safeguarding legislation in accordance with good practice in the care of young people, especially those living away from home.

Candidates will be expected to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including Disclosure and Barring Service checks and allow checks on their background and identity, including checks with past employers and suitable referees.

The appointment will be conditional upon successful outcomes of these checks and also on satisfactory enhanced DBS and children's barred list checks.

The School has a legal responsibility to ensure that all its Contractors have the legal right to live and work in the UK. Therefore, you will need to provide original documents verifying that you are eligible to work in the UK for the interview. Details of these will be provided in the invitation to interview.

All candidates invited to interview must bring the original documents confirming or verifying any educational and professional qualifications that are necessary or relevant for the post.